

Maada-kudengei manya

Lesser Salmon Catfish

Maada-kudengei manya

Silver Cobbler

Dorongai ninya

Hyrtl's tandan

Dorongai ninya

Black Catfish

Dorongai ninya

False-spined Catfish

Dorongai ninya

Pendah's Catfish

Yilarra manya

Barramundi

Mouth Almighty

Western Rainbowfish

Slender Rainbowfish

Prince Regent Hardyhead

MacCleay's Glassfish

Glassfish

Wuluwa ninya/Jaburru manya

Freshwater Longtom

Wungkalbarr manya

Seven-spot Archerfish

Slender Gudgeon

Empire Gudgeon

Kimberley Mogurnda

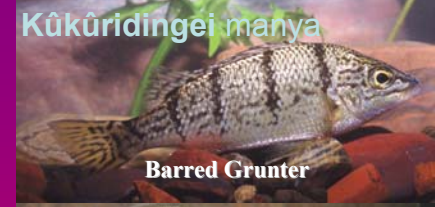

Giant Gudgeon

Wuma minya
Flathead Goby

Bony Bream

Kûkûridingei manya

Barred Grunter

Amalarr manya

Black Bream (Jenkin's Grunter)

Amalarr manya

Long-nose Sooty Grunter

Jelenji manya

Spangled Perch

Amalarr manya

Butler's Grunter

Kungkumirri manya

Long-nose Grunter

Freshwater fishes of the King Edward and Carson Rivers (including the Belaa names)

A recent survey of the King Edward and Carson Rivers revealed 26 species of freshwater fish (not including Barramundi). Many had not previously been recorded from the river and some represent considerable range extensions and potentially new species.

Kimberley Language Resource Centre

Funded

Poster by D. Morgan, M. Sefton, D. Cheimora & A. Charles. Photographs: D. Morgan, S. Visser, M. Allen.